

Roles

The next step shall be to create the roles. See the creation example below while a new role called ?Test Cust.Svc.? is created. The security representative can assign any category of access and the level of responsibility or access that a user of the system will give. This allows complete separation of duties and compliance.

Previous | Next