

Suppliers

The way SmartBilling treats suppliers is very important because it could help the operator to reconcile better its supplier costs and/or create an analysis of product profitability.

The creation of each product or service has attached a supplier. One of the very first things is to load all suppliers in the system.

Previous | Next